

Ring the Bells (tune: Jingle Bells) – author unknown

On a starry night many years ago,
Stars were shining bright on the earth below:
Angel voices told of a new-born king,
While the bells of Bethlehem joyfully did ring.

OH, RING THE BELLS! RING THE BELLS!
RING THEM OUT TODAY,
ECHOING THROUGH ALL THE WORLD,
LISTEN TO WHAT THEY SAY!
RING THE BELLS! RING THE BELLS!
RING THEM ALL THE WAY!
SPREAD THE MESSAGE FAR AND WIDE
THAT CHRIST IS BORN TODAY!

Wise men from afar journeyed night and day,
Followed till the star rested where He lay.
Looking for a king, but a baby saw,
Stayed to leave their offering, to worship and adore.
(CHORUS)

Shepherds left their sheep on the mountains wild,
Paid their homage deep to the Holy Child.
We may worship, too: gifts before Him lay,
Let the bells of Heaven ring, for Christ is born today!
